If you would like your child to participate in Music lessons, please complete the online form below and return it as soon as possible. This also applies to music scholars.

By returning the form for music lessons, parents agree to pay the fees, as published by the school, in advance to the teacher, no later than the first lesson of each term. The teacher will teach thirty lessons in the academic year but may teach more (or less) than ten lessons in any one term. If the teacher misses any lessons, these will be made up or refunded, if they are unable to teach thirty lessons in the year. The teacher is not obliged to make up lessons missed by the student but will do so if possible.

The course of the student's studies, including repertoire, public performances and entry for all examinations and competitions, always remains under the teacher's professional direction, in consultation with the parent where appropriate. Lessons up to and including Year 9 are delivered on a rotational basis throughout the school day.

If a parent wishes lessons to stop, they must give a full term's notice in writing, addressed to the teacher and ltoms@seaford.org. If a parent gives less than a term's notice, they will be required to make a payment to the teacher of a full term's fees in lieu of notice.
